

Jun Ogawa

Film Director

Jun Ogawa is a director born in Tokyo. Joining PICT in 2003, he produced ads for prestigious clients such as TOYOTA, Intel, and Mitsubishi Estate. After joining KOO-KI in 2015, he worked as an assistant director of Kan Eguchi, for the films like "Riding Uphill" and "Damedajuyushi" (a spin-off film of NHK's TV series, "Sanada Maru").

His past works include the series of TV ads for PACHINKO&SLOT ABC, the spin-off film "Tonari no Masara" for NHK Fukuoka, and the concert film of the band, a flood of circle. Jun excels in staging live-action films while crossing the boundaries of film formats.

"Tabisuru ukulele: Smile"

TV ad
PACHINKO&SLOT ABC

"Film Lucky Lucky Lucky"

Concert Film
a flood of circle

"Kamtect"

Web clip
GSK plc

"Negotiating for a Lower Price"

TV ad
Carseven

"Tonari no Masara"

Spin-off film
NHK(Japan Broadcasting Corporation) Fukuoka

"THE DANCE MUST GO ON! -MIHO BROWN-"

TV program (Documentary)
ABEMA

"Captivating Moments"

TV ad
ProgLab

"Someone's Smile"

TV ad
Jimoty, Inc.

"Fukuya lot (Itsumo/oishii/Todoku)"

PV
Fukuya Co., Ltd.

"DRAGON BALL Z: KAKAROT"

Opening Clip
CyberConnect2 Co., Ltd.