

山内 香里 Kaori Yamauchi

Film director, graphic designer and motion graphics designer

Born in Fukuoka, Japan in 1990, Kaori majored in graphic design at the university, and later changed her field to film art after graduation. She joined KOO-KI as an assistant in 2015, then became a director in 2022. Her specialty is 2-Dimensional art like graphic design, illustration, and motion graphics. She always aims to boost the appeal of the subjects through her work.

Her work "Kanehide Group 75th Archives," which was produced in 2022, won the Gold award for the Single/Series Web Film section at the 41st Okinawa Advertising Association Advertising Awards. Kaori also plans, directs, and is the MC of KOO-KI's official podcast "Keisha no shaberiba" which started in 2021.
